

Cal HQ Kickoff: Partnering for Progress

Join us in-person to launch a statewide, multi-year collaborative to improve safety and quality for all Californians.

Who is invited? Quality, patient safety, and infection prevention leaders from hospitals and health plans across California.

When and where? Choose the date and location that works best for you:

Southern California
April 14, 2026 | 8:00am – 3:00pm
The Grand, Long Beach

Northern California
April 30, 2026 | 8:00am – 3:00pm
CalPERS Headquarters, Sacramento

REGISTER: <https://bit.ly/4aAIXB>

To maximize participation across organizations, we kindly request hospitals send one representative and health plans send up to two representatives.*

Why join: Cal HQ is a new approach to quality and patient safety that builds on decades of success and facilitates tighter collaboration between health plans and hospitals. You will leave this meeting with new ideas, relationships, and inspiration. To learn more about Cal HQ, please visit:

KEYNOTE PRESENTERS

Libby Hoy, Founder + Chief Executive Officer, PFCCpartners

In 2010, Libby founded PFCCpartners to create a community of patients, families, providers, and health care organizations committed to shared learning of Patient & Family Centered Care practice. Libby's keynote will highlight innovative ways that hospitals, health plans, and patients can partner to improve outcomes, drawing on her own experience as both a patient and caregiver.

Chase Coffey, MD, Chief Quality Officer/Associate Chief Medical Officer, LA General Medical Center

Allison Luu, MD, Patient Safety Officer/Assistant Chief Quality Officer, LA General Medical Center

Dr. Coffey and Dr Luu will describe the cultural transformation that led to Los Angeles General Medical Center (LA General) being awarded an "A" rating by the Leapfrog Group. They will highlight opportunities for hospitals and health plans to accelerate improvement by partnering in new ways.
